

dEvAdi dEva sadAsiva

raagam: sindu raamakriya

taaLam: dEshaadi

Composer: Tyaagaraaja

Language: Telugu

Pallavi:

dEvAdi dEva! sadAsiva

dInanAtha sudhAkara dahana nayana

Anupallavi:

dEvEsha pitAmaha mrgya

shAmAdi guNabharaNa gaurI ramanNa

Charanam:

bhava candrakalAdhara nllagaLa

bhAnukOTi shankAsha shrIshanuta

tava pAdabhaktim dEhi dInabandhO

darahAsa vadana tyAgarAjanuta

Meaning*Pallavi:

O Lord of all celestials (Devadi Deva)! O Supreme, Auspicious Lord (Sadashiva)! O Lord who possesses the Sun (Lord of the day), the Moon (giver of nectar), and Fire as your three eyes!

Anupallavi:

O Lord of Lords, who is sought after and searched for even by Brahma (the Grandfather) and Indra (King of Gods)! O Lord adorned by virtues like serenity (Samadi), and the beloved consort of Gowri (Parvati).

Charanam:

O Lord who ends the cycle of birth and death (Bhava), who wears the crescent moon (Candra Kala Dhara), and who is the blue-throated one (Nila Gala)! O Lord who shines radiantly as if a crore (ten million) suns have risen together, and who is praised by Lord Vishnu (Sriisha Nuta)! O Friend of the humble and the helpless (Dina Bandho), O Lord with a smiling face praised by Thyagaraja! Please bless me and grant me pure devotion to Your Holy Feet.